The Wendy House is situated on McFarlands Down, a residential area of approximately forty houses, to the north of St Marys, approximately two miles from the "capital", Hugh Town.

The property has stunning views across the rear garden, and is just a short walk from some of the finest coastline on the island.

The Wendy House has been thoughtfully designed, with an excellent layout, generous room sizes and modern features including efficient oil-fired central heating system supplying radiators and towel rails, double glazing, pre-wired audio system to all rooms (including bathrooms) and Cat5 computer cable installation throughout the house.

Viewing highly recommended.
