Windrush

Windrush Church Road St Marys

DESCRIPTION AND LOCATION

Windrush is situated on Church Road, behind the Parish Church, enjoying a sunny Westerly aspect with commanding views across Hugh Town. Because of its elevated position, it is not overlooked by any neighbouring properties, and is therefore perfect for anyone looking for a quiet, secluded home, yet within a few minutes walk of the amenities of Hugh Town.

Originally built in the late 1950's, the property was bought by the present owners over twenty years ago, and heavily extended and modified to create the desirable residence it is today. In the intervening years, they have devoted much time landscaping and planting the grounds to create the wonderful gardens now on show.

With its elevated position, it enjoys excellent natural light throughout and yet, being tucked into the western slope of the hillside, is protected from the worst of the east and north winds.

The property enjoys night storage heating, connected to the Economy 7 tariff, supplemented by a multi-fuel cast-iron stove in the lounge.

Offered for sale, with no onward chain. Viewing highly recommended.

Outside the conservatory is an attractive and secluded south-facing terrace, with steps up to a small ornamental garden area with gazebo seating and ornamental pond. Lovely rooftop views across to Porthcressa Bay.

Generally, the gardens are heavily planted with shrubs flowers and palms, many native to southern Africa. Notable examples include a New Zealand Flame Tree, Agave Cactus, Strawberry Tree, Silver Tree, Aeonium, Day Lilies, Hottentot Figs and Pelargoniums. The northern fringes of the garden are planted with mature Pittosporum hedges, Elms and Dracaena Palms.

Built into the hillside behind the house is a useful GARDEN OUTBUILDING (3.46m x 3.44m), having block walls with a lean-to corrugated roof over. Interestingly, the remains of an original early 19th century cottage are apparent at the rear of the outbuilding, including the large granite fireplace.
